It is important that your project reflect what the Ursuline Sisters of Chatham have said about themselves, that they are:

- women with an option for justice and the poor
- women for women
- women who believe that “the earth is precious to God and to harm the earth is to heap contempt on its Creator”
- women who accept diversity with loving trust and respect for one another, committed to live in mutuality and dialogue

APPLICATION FORM FOR TAYLOR PROJECT FUNDS

The Taylor Fund provides financial assistance for projects that:

- Are justice oriented
- Involve women and/or youth in the performing and visual arts
- Express the dreams of social and/or ecological justice
- Connect with grassroots popular movements

Since these funds are granted to Canadian groups which meet criteria responding to specific needs not being met by government agencies, applicants are asked to complete the following form. The project must have an educational component and be recommended by a Chatham Ursuline Sister, Companion or Seeds of Hope Member.
